Description Tintype of a man standing next to a curtain (to his right, left in image). His hand is clasping his lapel near his shoulder. He has a mustache and it looks as if the tintype was colored around his cheeks which look rosy. The tintype is framed with a cold decorative metal and "From Kansas" over the metal. The tintype is in a wood, latched book and there is a piece of red velvet with decorations opposite the image. The book has a floral design in the center bordered by a circle, branch looking flourishes, and finally a lined border. The front and back covers have the same design. The book came in an envelope with "Orlando D. Dick, #44" written on it. This is most likely O.E. Heller's organization system.
