② JOHN SERGEANT - 1734

I should be ashamed to call myself a Christian or a man, and yet refuse to do what lay in my power, to cultivate humanity among a people naturally ingenious enough, but who, for want of instruction, live so much below the dignity of human nature, and promote the salvation of souls perishing in the dark when yet the light of life is so near them.

Grand children, Brothers and friends: Be it known to you that you have the same privilege as we have to this Land, we cannot point out a particular spot for you to live on; but you may take your choice wherever you should be suited on undivided Land along this river, there you may build fire-place

Where are the 25000 in Numbers and the 4000 Warriors who constituted the Power and population of the Great Muh-he-con-New Nation in 1604. They have been victims of vices and disease, which the white man imported. The Small pox, Measles and "strong waters" have done the work of annihilation.
