Identity Statement:Scope & Content / Abstract:

Single sheet of paper with a waybill written in black ink. The bill starts "Regular Line!, Way Bill June 22 1848". There is a list of stops and pricing, followed by a list written sideways on the paper with lines 2-5 X'd out. At the bottom is a lone line written horizontally from Milwaukee to Green Bay. The back cover page reads "No 204, Thursday June 22 48" originally Monday was written and crossed out with two lines. There are also three numbers just left of the cover page written in pencil.

The paper was folded multiple times and is most discolored and stained on the back cover page. From the front: the top right corner is jagged and stained. The left edge is rough as if torn from more paper. There is a tear along the left edge in the middle by the crease and the paper has folded. The bottom portion on the front is darker than the rest and there is browning in the middle of the front page.
