The paper was folded in quarters and is dirtiest along the left side of the back page, especially the creases. There is a stain in the bottom left corner on the back cover page as well as three black stains next to the left crease. From the front: There is a large black stain the bled when folded creating a mirror image in the top right quadrant. There are two tears along the middle that mirror each other as well so was torn while folded. The right crease from the front is tearing and has many holes down it. The creases from the front are white in color. And each crease ends along the top and bottom edges in tears.
