

Elder Video Catalog
Name:	Louella J. Cornelius	Accession #:	OHE-05
Date:	4/11/1996	Length:	4.25- 29 = 25 mins
Description
Boarding School ☐ Military ☐ Government ☐ Language ☐ Gaming ☐
DOB: July 17,1905 Place of Birth: Oneida Mother: Tilley (Metoxen) Father: Chancey Baird Siblings: 2 brothers and 3 sisters Grandparents: Grandmother- Dolly Spouse: Children: Donald Donna Jean Additional Information Louella's dad lived towards Freedom. She went to Morgan for a while, to the Hampton, and then returned home. She lived in Outagamie, Oneida, and then Detroit. Louella worked in a sew factory. She was Episcopal and her spouse was a Methodist. She was about eight years old when she started speaking English. When she had spare time she has to pick strawberries. She also made blankets. Her mother was a lace maker, and her father was a tax collector. Her father also played a horn. Her family owned a horse and buggy. Louella had to walk three miles to get to church. Louella recalls the priest at the church she attended. She went away to Hampton when she was about 15 or 16 years old. The first time she went away she had to send money home to assist in getting a cow. Unfortunately the family lost the farm due to taxes.
Staff Signature:		# of Discs:	1