Friend A. S.

I write you these few lines to let you know that I am still on the land of the living and hope these few scribbles will find you doing the same. I have given up going into the business that came up here for because it would not pay and having a good chance to go into the woods, I have concluded to try that for a while if not longer. I hope these few lines will find you in a better humor than you was when you fell out the rocking chair.

Nothing more but please to have the kindness to write me as soon as you get this.

I remain yours —

T. F. Quinney
