Description Black and white postcard of a school class. There are 14 students and a young female teacher standing to their right (left on postcard). The teacher is wearing a light dress with a dark handkerchief tied like a tie around chest. The boys are standing on the right and the girls to the left. There is one boy in front holding a chalk board that reads "Dist No. 2". They are standing in front of a building with light siding and matching wood shutters.
