Ed:

I recd your letter
to-day, and it found me well, and I do hope that this will find you well also.
I am very glad that you are all getting along finely with your spring's work. — Well Ed, I would like to have been with you, on that fishing expedition!

Well Ed, I think that hanging is also too good for them Assassins!
& I tell you that we had to go on a big review the 18th Inst. We had to drill the bag-a-nett exercise, <sup>and</sup> the skirmish drill, in the state house yard, we had to drill by the bugle & do our best at that! & believe me, our Reg<sup>t</sup> is actually well drilled, we can not be other-wise, we are old soldiers enough to be! & I tell you we made the Citizens stare, especialy when we would Charge Bag-a-netts at the men, & we would charge clear-up to the immense crowd (which surrounded us,) to with-in A few feet of them before the bugle would; would sound the Halt! & it would have made you laugh to see them crowd-back, when we would come up, ha. ha. ha.

Our gallant reg<sup>t</sup> has got A nice Brass band, — Well Ed you wanted to know what has become of my (Calico) I will tell you, But Beware!! keep it A secret! I am liveing with her, as "Man<sup>d</sup> Wife." & A gay time I am haveing too? — Well Ed, I will now give you the details of father (Abraham) proceeding to Spring-
