Identity Statement:Scope & Content / Abstract:

Legal sized paper with correspondence on both sides. The letter starts "Convelensance [sic] Camp, Nashvill. Nashvill Tennessee, October the 25 AD 1863. My Dear Sister" and is signed "From your ever faithful brother, Elisha Schooner" and there are two additional paragraphs after his signature. The last one asks his sister to write him back saying his wife is deathly sick and needs him home so that he can use it to get a furlough.

The letter was folded in half horizontally and in thirds vertically. There is a lot of discoloration and staining on the front, especially in the middle third. It looks like the staining bled through the paper rather than different staining on the back. The left edge was torn from something so is ragged. Top right corner was folded as was the bottom right corner.
