Identity Statement:Scope & Content / Abstract:

Half sheet of blue paper with a form printed in black ink and filled out in black ink. There is a decorative design down the left side: oval in shape with a boat in the middle in an oval frame. There is a banner below this design with a $ symbol and a place to write the cents. The form's header reads "Calumet County, Wis. Town of Brothertown, February 11th 1858, Received of O.D. Fowler ____ Dollars and fifty-eight cents, being the amount of Taxes on the following described Lands, for 1857, to wit." Beneath the header is a grid with the description, half of, lot no, acres, and price. Two items are filled into this grid and the bottom is signed by David G. Smith, Town Treasurer. Written on the back cover page is "Tax receipt, for the year, 1857".
