Title: Waffle Correspondences 1850-1900

Scope & Content / Abstract:

Report from Nov 10 to Dec 4 written on ledger paper with pink vertical lines and blue horizontal and vertical lines. The report is an expense report most likely from Archie to his father like the previous reports because it contains similar items: suit clothes, hair cut, supper, treats, cigar, ruler, etc. On the back written at the bottom is a small note that reads "After this I don't think it will be necessary (sic) for me to make a report only once a month so I will not send the next one until Jan 1, 1893, Read this very carefully. Will paid my board last week and this weeks unpaid. Grammar unpaid for blanks for actual business unpaid for. Total indebtiness $8.25. You will see by this that I was in great need of money."
