DOB: 5-11-1925 Place of Birth: Oneida, raised in Tigerton Mother: Louise (Hill) Lived to 103 years old Father: Paul Moose (Christjohn) Siblings: Anna John, Maria Hinton, Eva Cornelius, Elizabeth Rose Hoington, Amos Christjohn, Vernon and John Grandparents: Louise Christjohn Grandma Hill and Grandpa Joe Spouse: Children: Tony and Ronnie Additional Information Mae went to mission Wittenburg mission school, and later was sent to Nelsvillie, Wisconsin, and she attended Winnebago boarding school. She states that many Oneidas lived up towards Tigerton, Bowler, Wittenburg, in that general area. Mae walked everywhere she went. At the time of her life she explains that wakes for the passed on loved ones would last 3 days. They were done the Oneida way. This meant that the wakes took place at home and the people would sing all night long Mae moved to Milwaukee when she was 17 or 18 years old. She did return to Green Bay and lived with her mother for about 30 years. She worked in Health Programs. She says that her mother made baskets. Her parents spoke Oneida, however she learned Winnebago. She wishes to tell the youth to have more respect for the elderly, take to their education, and help other people.
