My dear Cousins;

I feel that I ought to write Getta separately but I have so little time and am trying to answer at least some of my letters-shall have to neglect some-quite a few that I rec'd long ago. but feel that I must write you a few lines and wish you all a more restful feeling at the present time from what the shock of poor Lewis passing so suddenly away gave you at first; for he is at rest now and waiting for us all when our time shall come. I do not feel that we should ever wish them back to go through with again what they have already experienced. It is Nature and we all have to swell it in time. I do not believe that we have to go until our time comes. But we must all make the best of our time here preparing for the future. Oh dear I have to sit right in the room here "to write" with Mrs Robbins and her brother. I cannot think. Lillie Moore was sick a week Anna was out for a week - but came home and will be be with them this winter. Hattie is married glad to hear. I rec'd word from Mr Walter's Telling me to notify all Montauk not to lend any more money until further notice from him. would you please tell all you can tell to my wife you when you go to Edna's. write when you can.

With love & love to all from Cousin Ellen
