Identity Statement:Scope & Content / Abstract:

Four pages of correspondence on a single sheet of folded, lined paper. The letter is addressed "Fort Dodge Kas, Sunday Feby 6th 1876, Friend E.M." and is signed on the fourth page (opposite the first page) "I remain -- yours, L.C. Dick". Near the bottom left corner of the last page "E.M. Dick, Brothertown, Wis." is written. Difficult to read for content.

There are multiple large brown stains on the letter. The stains seem to have been on the last page, but while folded, bled through to the first page. On the last page there stain is along the bottom crease and is the largest and darkest in the middle. There is also one along the top crease, but it isn't as large or as dark. Finally there is a dark one in the top left corner of the last page that goes down the left edge.
