Description Black and white postcard with two men and two horses. The man on the right is shorter and is wearing dark pants, a dark shirt and suspenders. The horse closest to him is smaller and standing right next to the bigger horse which is being held by the second man who is younger and taller. He is wearing a long-sleeved shirt with the sleeves rolled up under bibbed-overalls. There is a house with a porch in the background.

Written in black ink on the back is "Louis and Ed Gasch".
