DOB: June 17, 1915 Place of Birth: West DePere Mother: Sophie (Antone) Cornelius Father: Mason Cornelius Siblings: 5 sisters- Lucey, Lena, Sadie, Amy, and Josephine and 3 brothers- Alex, Guy, and Fremond Grandparents: Father's side, Jamie Cornelius and Melinda, both from Oneida Mother's side, Isaac Antone Spouse: Children: Additional Information Helen's family home was located just off of Tip Rd. The entire family spoke Oneida and, were all Episcopal. Her mother Sophie was a lace maker. She knew how to make corn bread and soup. Her father worked for a culvert company. It is questioned if she went to Elm hill in the eighth grade. When Helen was 22 years old she took the train to Chicago and did house work. This was her first time away from home and taking a train. Church was a very important thing to the family. Helen was a part of a group called Senior Gill, at the church. This was a group where elder ladies would come together to make blankets or quilts. After she attended Senior Gill she would clean and set up for Sunday morning church.
