Identity Statement:Scope & Content / Abstract:

Two identical card stock ad's with print in black ink. They were meant to be folded in half but neither is. On one side is "Kaukauna Sesquicentennial Celebration, 1790 1940" and has a small wood home drawn in the middle, "Ducharme Home". The opposite side of the same page reads "This is your year to visit Kaukauna and a dozen good reasons why" and there are twelve listed events in a rectangle. The other side is oriented differently. One half is a two story house with two porches (first and second floors) and reads "See the Historic Grignon Home, On Wisconsin's First Homestead Kaukauna, Wisconsin". The opposite side of the same page is laid out like an envelope with "Sec. 562 P.L. & R." where a stamp would go.
