The paper was folded in half and again in quarters and is most discolored along the creases of the folds. There is a dark stain in the middle along the bottom edge of the form. There is also a white discoloration speck near the right edge about four inches from the bottom. There are holes where the vertical folds meet the horizontal fold and the biggest hole is where the right fold meets the horizontal fold. There is a tear along the left edge where the middle fold crease ends. Someone wrote $11.45 in pencil and $350 just right of the cover page. The cover page is badly faded and nearly illegible except for the names of the parties involved.
