Identity Statement:Scope & Content / Abstract:

Single sheet of cream paper used as a waybill written in black ink. It starts "Way Bill, June 12th AD 1848" in larger writing at the top. This is followed by two, two-line sections of writing, a list of seven lines written sideways the last three of which are crossed out, and finally two lines at the bottom written in black ink and one written in pencil. The pencil line has each word scratched out at the bottom. The back cover page reads "No 201, Monday June 12 1848".
