Identity Statement:Scope & Content / Abstract:

Legal sized piece of paper with two pages of correspondence. The letter is addressed to "Brothertown June 8th, 1859, Dear and affectionate Daughter..." It talks about the death of her uncle Ransom's little baby (possibly written about in BC2010.022.416). It continues by telling her that more children and adults are sick, he has no money to send her, and that he has fractured one of his ribs. It is signed "From your Efectionate [sic] Father, A.D. Fowler".

The letter is good shape. It has been folded many times but there is no wear or tear. The paper is from a notebook or was attached to another piece of paper, the left edge is rough while the right is smooth. There looks to be one large black stain near the bottom right corner from the front. It could be an ink stain or it might be a burn stain for there is a small hole in the middle of it as well, most likely an ink stain.
