Additional Information Family belong to Holy Apostle. She was the youngest of the family, Loretta when to the Government Board School in Oneida Robert Hill center. She had to stay there, was there about 3 years. Parents spoke Oneida. Loretta said they lived on suckers, corn soup & bread. Her Dad was a singer at the Church. When Loretta was young they had to have some one interpret the Oneida language at church. Rode the train in Oneida when to Seymour, If anybody got sick they would get Dr. Cirsten from DePere. After she finished High View School, then went to work. She went to Milwaukee she did house work there. And came back to Oneida, started working at Larsens. Advise to young people; stay in school.
