Identity Statement:Scope & Content / Abstract:

Four sheets of paper with writing in black ink. Pages 1-3 only have writing on one side, but the last page has writing on both (continuation of the inventory and a cover page on the back). The cover page reads "Inventory of the personal property of Isaac Dick dec after taking out the interest of the widow" and a large 'C' is below it. The first page has a small seal in the top left corner and begins with a paragraph that starts "A true and perfect inventory of all the house hold furniture, which were of Isaac Dick late..." The list begins half way down the first page and has the items listed on the left and the value or price on the right. The second page continues the list with a small description squeezed in at the top in a different ink. The third page lists three items only: 1 yoke 4 year old oxen, 1 yearling colt, 1 march with a total of $254.00. The last page has a list of six items with prices starting with 60 -- wheat, 77 -- date, etc. The second and third pages were connected with red adhesive at the top in the middle which has since become unstuck. It looks like the third and fourth pages were connected the same way with red adhesive but the fourth page tore away from the third.
