Identity Statement:Scope & Content / Abstract:

Four pages of correspondence on a single sheet of folded paper. The paper is cream in color and the ink is black. The letter is addressed "Georga, May the 22 AD1864, My Dear Sister Charlotte" and signed EN Schooner, but the signature is buried in the writing about 7 lines from the bottom of the last page. He continues his writing telling her to tell Luty to write his brother and send love to him and his best wishes to her. Writing is to each edge of every page and on page two he crunches a line at the very bottom.
