Identity Statement:Scope & Content / Abstract:

Single sheet of paper used for a waybill written in black ink. In the top left corner is a stamp that is an oval with flourishes around it. The bill starts "Way Bill No Green Bay Monday 31 July 1848" and is followed by a list of twelve lines; the bottom line is separated from the first ten and lines 7-10 are X'd out. At the bottom are seven lines written sideways. The back cover page is on the far right of the back side of the paper rather than the middle like most and reads "Way Bill No 215, Monday 31 July 1848".
