Identity Statement:Scope & Content / Abstract:

Three page correspondence on a single sheet of folded paper. The first page is written on the right half of the one side, the third page is written on the left half of the same side, but the second page starts on the unfolded piece of paper and goes to the length of it, so it is in a different direction and one whole page as compared to the first and last pages. The letter is addressed "610 Belmont Ave., Racine, Wis. Feb 25-1917, Dear Louise" and it is signed on the third page (opposite first page) "Well I must stop now as I have many letters to write. You can address me in Racine, 610 Belmont Ave, Hattie". She talks about her cough and how she is going to visit all her loving relatives, but didn't want to go to Louise's with the cold and her cough.

BC2010.022.630B is the envelope that is addressed "Louise Fowler, Chilton, Wisconsin, R.F.D. Box 138" with two 1 cent stamps (green). The envelope is stamped "Kenosha, Feb 26-17, 1---30PM, WIS."
