Robbie was head of the Naval Hospital here before his retirement. He was a surgeon serving in the Korean War as well as World War II. He was a charming and interesting person as was Sue and they both loved Charleston. Both were members of a fun-loving group known as the NOCATS (National Organization of Chicken Admirers and Trainers). Robbie served as the flag bearer for this small bunch of eccentrics that met every New Years in a different city. They had friends all over the world and loved to entertain with Sue preparing wonderful foods and beautiful imaginative table settings for every occasion.* 1970 Edward C.
