Michael doesn't have any problems with public sharing but would like attribution. He's in Florence, but I don't have a more specific address. Do you need that for attribution? Or just his name?

Seems like its feast or famine with getting old photos!

A guy from Florence, SC named Michael Young is okay with public sharing of these photo from Feb. 1977 of 44 Line Street.

He's really interested in trains. This building was built about 1850 for the railroad to house repairs shops and things like that. Michael apparently got access to the building when it was being sold to Goodwill Industries.
