

From: Kevin R. Eberle
To: Emmons, Karen
Subject: 1911 postcard
Date: Tuesday, January 05, 2021 11:41:12 AM

Did I ever show this card to you?

I was just cleaning a guest room in my house and found it at the bottom of a stack of papers I have been meaning to sort and file away (since c. 2015).

The postcard was never mailed, but the design around the stamp spot was only used in 1911.

I think it shows St. Michael's Alley from Church Street, but I'm not sure what that brick building with the big arched opening would have been.

Kevin

The information transmitted is intended only for the person or entity to which it is addressed and may contain confidential and/or legally privileged material. Any review, re-transmission, dissemination or other use of this information, directly or indirectly, by persons or entities other than the intended recipient is prohibited. If you are not the intended recipient please contact the sender and delete the material from all computers in which it resides. Internet communications cannot be guaranteed to be secure or error-free as information could be intercepted, corrupted, lost, destroyed, arrive late, incomplete, or contain viruses. Therefore, we do not accept responsibility for any errors or omissions that are present in this message, or any attachment, that have arisen as a result of e-mail transmission. If verification is required, please request a hard-copy version or contact us by phone. Any views or opinions presented are solely those of the author and do not necessarily represent those of the Charleston School of Law.