CONTRACT

Catherine G. Rogers of Charleston, SC, hereinafter known as the Contractor, shall provide all labor and materials for completion of the work on the item(s) above. All work shall conform to the Code of Ethics and Standards of Practice of the American Institute for Conservation. All reasonable precaution shall be observed in the care of the item(s) of the Owner/Custodian. There is no warranty, expressed or implied, that the item(s) shall be returned to its/their original condition.

The Contractor shall provide, upon completion of the conservation treatment, (1) a treatment report and (2) color slide photo-documentation. Black-and-white photographs and negatives shall be taken and retained by the Contractor. The Owner/Custodian may request and obtain copies of the black-and-white photographs upon additional payment to the Contractor. The Owner/Custodian agrees that the Contractor may use any and all photographs, drawings, and written documents made in the performance of services for scientific and educational purposes.

The Owner/Custodian understands that the proposed treatment and estimated cost may be modified upon notice to him. This shall be deemed necessary if hidden damage is discovered as the work proceeds or if the Contractor believes additional treatment is required to ensure the aesthetic or structural integrity of the object and/or the quality of the work.

No work shall be undertaken until ~~(1) an advance of one half of the estimate shall be paid and~~ <sup>eqn.</sup> (2) one copy of this document shall be signed by the Owner/Custodian and returned to the Contractor. The balance of payment is due and payable in full upon completion of the conservation treatment.

The Owner/Custodian certifies that he is the sole owner of the item(s) described above or that he has been duly authorized by the owner to instruct the Contractor to carry out the above proposed treatment and to sign this agreement in all its parts.
