A fellow named Scott McClain is a descendant of the Doscher family. He has that photo. I think his copy is framed in glass, but I've asked him if he can provide a 300 dpi scan of it (hopefully not behind glass). At the least, I've asked if he is okay with a copy being used in the archives.

Fingers crossed!

Don't have a copy of that photo. It's great! I guess the third story was added sometime after (before 1944 – it's 3-stories on the Sanborn). How, from whom, when, etc., did you acquire the image? I'd hate to "steal" it from someone else w/o crediting them even though it would be in the public domain.

Do you have a copy of this photo of the building at 105 Broad Street?

If not, I'll ask the descendant of the Doschers about filing a copy with HCF.
