

Smithsonian

January 30, 2020

Lauren Northup
Historic Charleston Foundation
40 East Bay Street
Charleston, SC 29401

Dear Lauren Northup,

The National Museum of American History (NMAH) is eager to continue the loan of the pair of silver spoons through March 1, 2023. These objects feature prominently in the exhibition Many Voices, One Nation.

If Historic Charleston agrees to this request for the extension of the loan, please sign and date the statement below and return this letter to NMAH Incoming Loan Program. All terms and conditions of the original loan agreement will remain in effect through the new loan period.

Please contact me at 202-633-3879 or via e-mail at NMAHLoanProgram@si.edu if you have questions or concerns regarding this loan. Thank you for your continuing support of the National Museum of American History exhibition programs.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Kristie L DaFoe".

Kristie DaFoe
Loan Specialist

Smithsonian Institution
PO Box 37012
National Museum of American History
Room 1230, MRC 667
Washington, DC 20013-7012
Phone: (202) 633-3879
Email: NMAHLoanProgram@si.edu

I agree to the loan extension of the pair of silver spoons through March 1, 2023. All terms and conditions of the original loan agreement will remain in effect throughout the extended period (see NMAH loan #2016.6014).

Signature

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Lauren Northup".

February 5, 2020
Date