

— The Editorial Eye —

PRESIDENT'S ROW — These four houses which face Montagu Street are part of the President's Row project and have remained basically unimproved for more than a year since they were moved from the Medical University complex. A controversial proposal to build 12 condominiums on an adjoining, L-shaped lot at the southeast corner of Montagu Street and Lockwood Drive will be back before the Charleston City Board of Adjustment today on appeal. (Staff Photo by Stephanie Harvin).