

From: Kevin R. Eberle
To: Emmons, Karen
Subject: One more view
Date: Tuesday, July 28, 2020 8:44:33 PM

---

This was the old ice factory that stood on what is now that surface parking lot on North Market where the carriages load up with passengers. The photo was taken about 1921. The factory was built in 1920, and this exact photo was used in a story in the newspaper about the new ice factory in 1921.

The woman who shared it on the “Charleston History Before 1945” Facebook group that I moderate is a descendent of the owners of the ice company. I sent her a message to see if she would share a high resolution scan with the archives, but I have not gotten a reply.

Kevin

The information transmitted is intended only for the person or entity to which it is addressed and may contain confidential and/or legally privileged material. Any review, re-transmission, dissemination or other use of this information, directly or indirectly, by persons or entities other than the intended recipient is prohibited. If you are not the intended recipient please contact the sender and delete the material from all computers in which it resides. Internet communications cannot be guaranteed to be secure or error-free as information could be intercepted, corrupted, lost, destroyed, arrive late, incomplete, or contain viruses. Therefore, we do not accept responsibility for any errors or omissions that are present in this message, or any attachment, that have arisen as a result of e-mail transmission. If verification is required, please request a hard-copy version or contact us by phone. Any views or opinions presented are solely those of the author and do not necessarily represent those of the Charleston School of Law.