

Best Wishes for a Peaceful and Prosperous New Year from Page & Turnbull

These sketches of Charleston, South Carolina, were completed by Chris Grubbs, Illustrator, in September 2007. Included in the Charleston Historic Preservation Plan, they represent the character of a city that is vibrant and contemporary, yet respectful of its heritage. The Plan, completed by Page & Turnbull, was funded jointly by the Historic Charleston Foundation and the City of Charleston.

List of giclée prints:

1. Peace Street, Rosemont, ink on paper
2. M & J Grocery, Corning & Spring, ink on paper
3. Freedman's Cottage, 380 Race Street, charcoal on paper
4. Slave Quarters, McLeod Plantation, James Island, charcoal on paper

Page & Turnbull is an architecture and planning firm that has emphasized the reuse and revitalization of historic resources. Founded in 1973, the firm is based in San Francisco with offices in Sacramento and Los Angeles.

Chris Grubbs, Illustrator, works primarily in pencil and watercolor to produce drawings that transcend the detail and technical nature of buildings to capture the emotion of a place. All images are the property of Chris Grubbs, Illustrator, and may not be reproduced for any reason without the artist's consent.