I'll reply from home at my computer. The color slide shows the northwest corner of State and Chalmers before the house at the corner was slid south to the corner lot.

Hi Kevin,

I was thinking about you this morning and then I learned that you stopped by with some photos a little while ago. I'm sorry I missed you (was upstairs eating lunch)!!

Thank you so much for the 3 postcards, glass lantern slide, and Kodachrome slide. What a nice way to end the year with some new additions to the photo collection. I think I can figure out the two postcards (already have one of the the NRH doorway) but do you have any insight into the street featured in the Kodachrome slide?

Anyway, you've been the archives' biggest supporter and one day I'm going to lobby to rename the archives after you.

Happy new year! Looking forward to seeing you in 2019.

Karen
