

Georgetown Man Appointed Kanuga Business Manager

ASHEVILLE, N. C., Oct. 11. (UPI): Appointment of Willard P. Verduin as business manager of the Episcopal church's Kanuga conference center was disclosed today.

Verduin is now in land management work with the West Virginia Pulp and Paper company, at Georgetown, S. C.

In his new post, he will do jobs formerly performed by the superintendent, the Rev. John Pinckney, of Greenville, S. C., and the property manager, Rufus Honeycutt, who has been at Kanuga about 40 years.

In announcing the appointment, the Rt. Rev. M. George Henry, bishop of the Western North Carolina Episcopal diocese and president of Kanuga, said Pinckney would now be able to devote his full time to his parish, St. James, in Greenville.

Kanuga, near Asheville, is the church's largest conference center.

Lail, Returned From The Dead, Lands In Jail

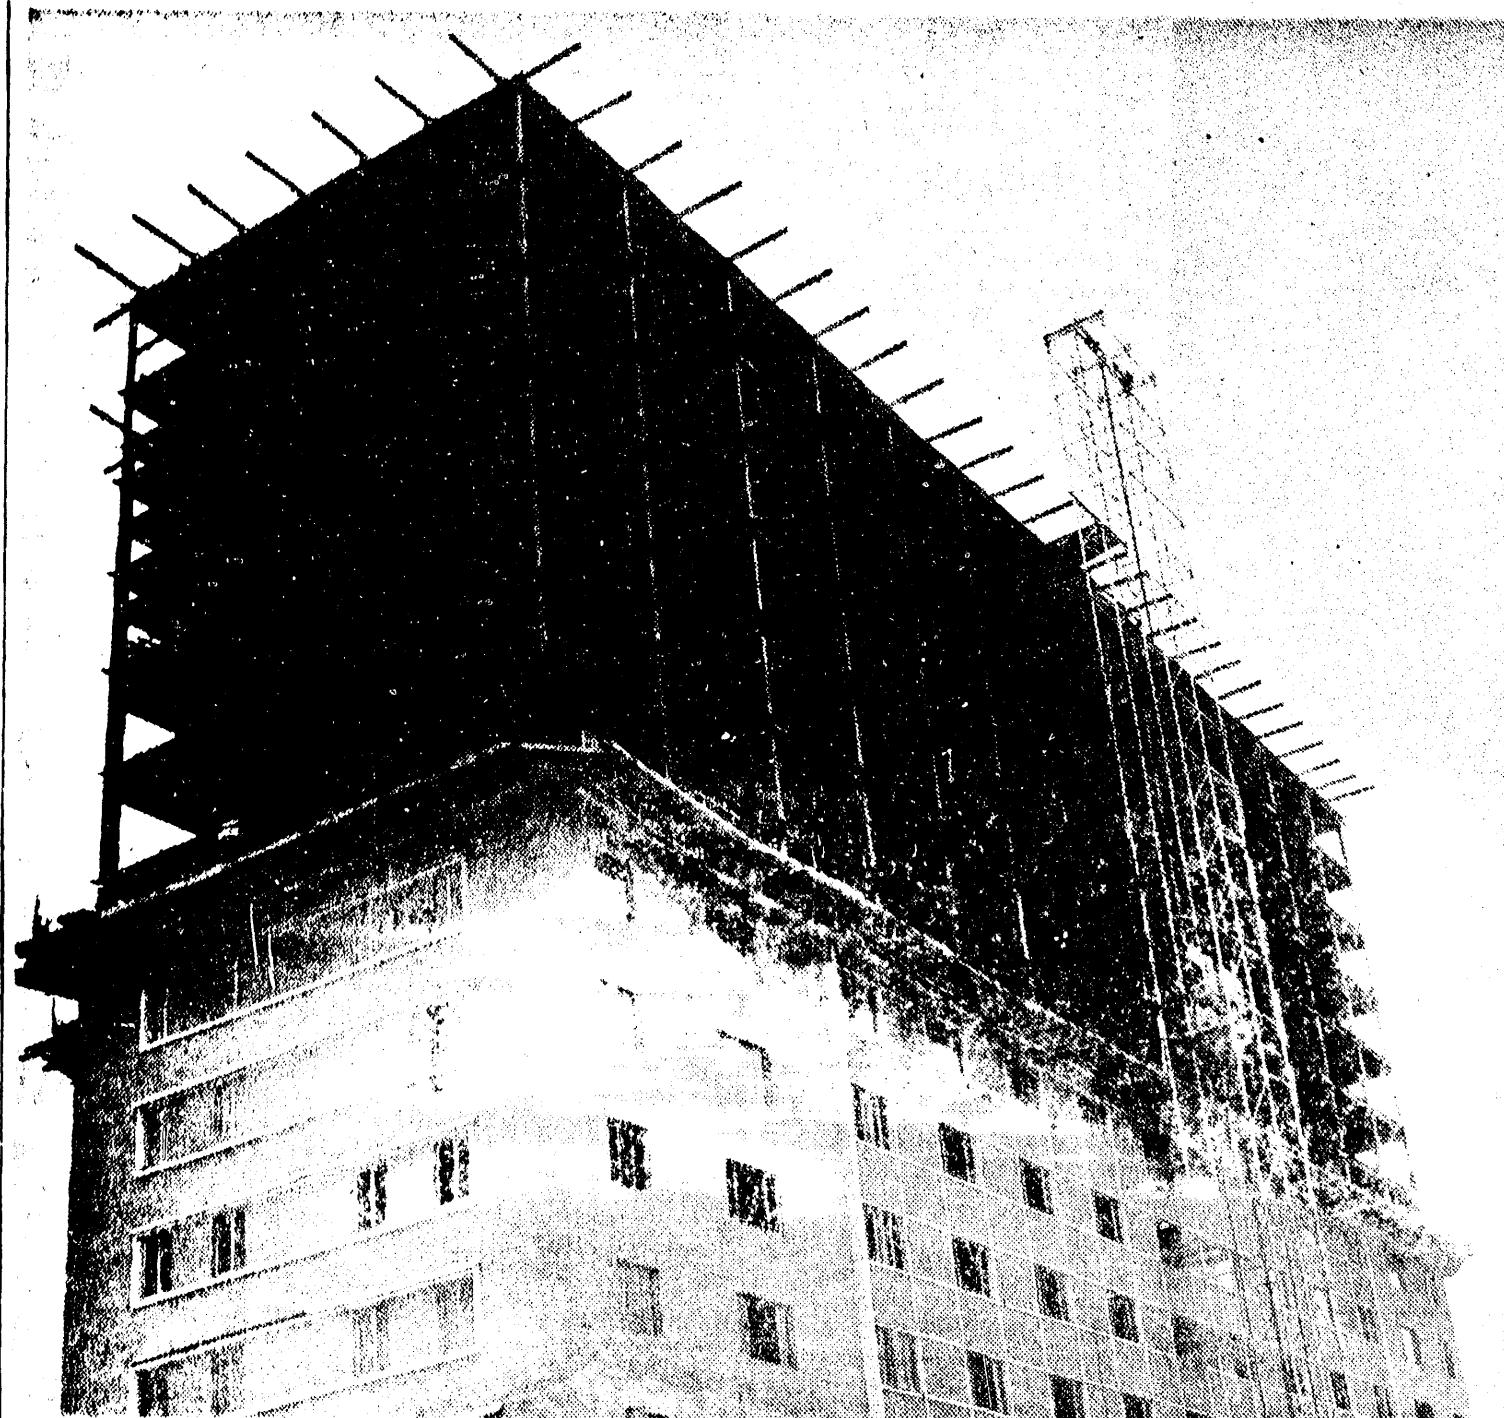

COLUMBIA, Oct. 11. (UPI): Herman O'Neal Lail came back from the dead today and they put him in jail for non-support.

Officers said Lail, 23, turned up suddenly at his mother's home here yesterday. Police had thought him dead since September 18, when he disappeared on the Congaree river during the night.

The last seen of Lail, police said, was when he rowed into the darkness in a waterlogged boat. No trace of the craft was found when officers dragged the river and searched the banks for 13 miles downstream.

Acting on a tip, officers went to the home of his mother, Mrs. Pearl Braxton, and discovered the missing youth. They quoted him as saying he had to leave town suddenly. His friends knew he was gone, he said, and should have told his family.

Officers said the non-support charges had been pending since

GOING UP—The brick facing of the Sergeant Jasper apartment building at the west end of Broad street is rapidly nearing completion. Here only five of the 14 stories remain to be covered. Meanwhile work of erecting interior walls is progressing. The steel frame in the center of the photo is an elevator shaftway which speeds brick, mortar and other supplies to workmen on the scaffolds. All safety precautions necessary are used to protect the brickmasons and other workers. (Staff Photo by Reilly.)
