

435 1970 thru 1996 vacant 1920 thru 1980 Condon's Department Store (see 433 King) 1900
Vacant

436 1999 Rosedale Florist and Gifts 1990 Centurion Finance Co. /Herbert S. Massey dentist 1960
thru 1980 Bell Finance Co. / Herbert S. Massey dentist 1950 Palmetto Photo Shop 1940 thru 1950 1/2
J. Talmadge Massey © dentist 1930 Peoples Finance & Loan Assn./ H. S. Johnson © dentist 1920 B.Z.
Kaufman/G.J. Follin 1910 Vacant 1900 Hyman Becker shoemaker

437 1/2 1920 Sea Food Market 1900 Vacant

438 1980 thru 1999 Neighborhood Legal Assistance Program Inc. 1920 thru 1970 Harris
Livingstain Co hardware & building supplies 1940 thru 1950 Harry J Sholok 1940 Louis Karesh 1930 Outlet Shoe Store Mrs Annie Karesh 1900 thru 1910 Uncle Harry's Pawn Shop Harris Livingstain
built this Victorian Italianate building in 1908 as his business and residence. He was born in St Louis and came here with his family when he was three years old. He went into business at the age of 19 operating a shop known as Uncle Harry's Pawn Shop. In 1920 he became a supplier of building supplies under the name Harris Livingstain Co. dealing in general merchandise, hardware, plumbing supplies, lumber, sash and doors. The house was a refuge for any relative who needed a home. He died in 1935 and a relative, Leo Livingstain continued the business with lumber and other materials used in home construction.

439 1999 Juanita Greenberg's Burrito Palace & Nacho Royale A favorite lunch spot for upper King Street was Juanita Greenberg's. The restaurant specialized in Mexican food and served outstanding margarita's. 1990 Vacant 1950 thru 1980 The Family Shoe Store 1950 thru 1960 Waltone Color Laboratory & Studio Photography 1940 Dan's Men & Boys Shop 1920 B.J. Ward © 1900 thru 1910
B.J. Ward © barber

440 1970 Jerry's Thrift Shop 1960 Palmetto Camera Store & Hobby Shop 1950 Jansson's Carpet Shop 1940 Abe's Furniture House / Walter M. Browder 1930 Lowry's Market / J. A. Jones 1920 People's Market / J.J. Barrineau 1910 John Stokien © / O.W. Collins As an experienced butcher John Stokien was one of the few blacks to conduct a business on upper King Street. He bought his meat on the hoof and killed and dressed it himself. In this way he was in position to positively guarantee what he handled. He had prime fresh beef, mutton, veal, lamb and pork as well as salted and smoked meats of fine quality and flavor. He also kept a fine display of poultry and vegetables in season. A specialty of his was pure leaf lard.

441 1999 Isadore 1990 Eagle Finance Co. 1980 Gene Watts Studio commercial photographer 1970
Vacant 1960 The Draper Shop 1950 Michaels Fabric Center / Mark J. Metz © chiropodist 1940
Gilberson's clothing / Independence Insurance Co. 1930 United Dry Goods Co. 1910 J.P. Seabrooke
Jr. © / J.P.Seabrooke © 1900 Vacant