CHARLESTON THEATER — Work is under way on the Charleston Adventure Theater behind the Visitors' Information Center on Calhoun Street. The 3,800-square-foot facility will seat 132 people. It will feature a 30-minute multi-media program on Charleston of interest to residents and tourists alike, according to Robert H. Nuttall, whose company is undertaking the project. The theater is expected to be in operation by next spring. Later it will be moved to the planned Visitors Reception Transportation Center near the Charleston Museum. (Staff Photo by Bill Jordan)
