This is a photo showing 718 (L) and 716 (R) King Street in the 1940s. Jack Stinson is a member of the family, and he shared this with me. His family operated the Swan Laundry, and this is a view that was taken in front of their laundry, looking across the street.

I've asked him for permission to include them in the archives for public review. Will let you know if I hear back.

Kevin
