Yep. Jack was totally fine with sharing any of those. I took him to lunch about a year ago at Fleet Landing to plead with him to share some photos he had said he had. He was happy to let anyone see them and said he would have to look around for them and get them scanned. A few weeks ago, he emailed that shot of the house on upper King Street with his family posing on the sidewalk. I was thinking that was all he would find. Then, yesterday he send those others along too! Hope springs eternal that he might have some more.

Where's Glenwood? I'd like to keep the photos that show the exterior. Do I have permission to do so?

Thanks,

The man who shared the photo of the house on Upper King Street a few weeks that I forwarded, Jack Stinson, just sent me a few more photos of his family in front of (and in the living room of) their house at 4 Glenwood. Not great images. I got two from him last year that were clearer, but still okay shots.
