Dear Dad,

Sometime last spring, March I believe, my son and I stopped in front of your home and you were so gracious to invite us in for a tour. I wanted to share these photo's with you right away Season's Greetings but so much got in the way. That same son & his wife had their first child! I finally printed these photos and my mother, Julia Cordes Simmers was sweet enough to try to label all the faces. Hope you Enjoy!
