Not sure how to respond. Mrs. [Helen] Fischer just mailed the set of photos to my neighbors without any notes about sharing them at all. My neighbor then gave me permission to copy them. But I've never spoken to Mrs. Fischer at all.

And the 10,000 question...Do I have permission to use these photos?? What is the person's name?

Thanks!

Hi k,

Kevin Eberle (keberle@charlestonlaw.edu) invited you to edit the folder "56 Parkwood Ave" on Dropbox.

Kevin said:

"Okay. One more and then I promise I won't deluge you with any more photos for a while! The house at 56 Parkwood Ave. in my neighborhood was built about 1922 by one of the major developers of the neighborhood. The daughter of the baby in these photos stopped by the house last year and talked to the current owner. Then, this week, she mailed the letter, notes, and photos that I've scanned and uploaded here. It's too bad that the photographer didn't stand back a few more feet to capture the whole house, but these are better than nothing! I saved the files with numbers in parentheses to match the numbers of the list of photos Mrs. Fischer left.
