

From: Kevin R. Eberle
To: Emmons, Karen
Subject: 40 Dunnemann
Date: Wednesday, September 09, 2020 4:33:04 PM

I shared that photo of 40 Dunnemann with the current owner. She said that, when she got married, the previous owner gave her some pictures of the house as a wedding present! The previous owner was the “granny” from a vintage clothing store known as “Granny’s Goodies” that I recall existing in the 1990s. “Granny” grew up in the house.

These pics are not 600+ dpi, but they are pretty good!

The information transmitted is intended only for the person or entity to which it is addressed and may contain confidential and/or legally privileged material. Any review, re-transmission, dissemination or other use of this information, directly or indirectly, by persons or entities other than the intended recipient is prohibited. If you are not the intended recipient please contact the sender and delete the material from all computers in which it resides. Internet communications cannot be guaranteed to be secure or error-free as information could be intercepted, corrupted, lost, destroyed, arrive late, incomplete, or contain viruses. Therefore, we do not accept responsibility for any errors or omissions that are present in this message, or any attachment, that have arisen as a result of e-mail transmission. If verification is required, please request a hard-copy version or contact us by phone. Any views or opinions presented are solely those of the author and do not necessarily represent those of the Charleston School of Law.