

FOR PRIVATE SALE,
Or to be Exchanged for other Property in a more retired situation.

THAT HOUSE and LOT in Stoll's Alley, wherein the subscriber dwelleth.
The Lot is thirty-one feet front, on Stoll's Alley, and runs southwardly, one hundred and thirty-five feet. The House is eighteen by forty feet, built of brick, one story, and floaled; has three snug rooms on each floor a good pantry, a double piazza at the south-end, from the upper part of which you have a full view of the whole harbor and Bay, a Kitchen, one story and a half high; an excellent Stable, Necessity, Jar, & Vault and Poultry House, all of which build pgs. of the best materials, and not year old; the kitchen and stable on a brick foundation; and sufficient room for a carriage house to be built.

Also, a LOT in Union-Street continued, adjoining, northwardly, the house at the corner of Lodge Alley; forty feet front on the said Street and running eastwardly, one hundred and ten feet. On the premises are the brick walls of a two story house and a brick scudroom with chimney and oven entire, for a Kitchen.

For terms apply to

Peter Trezevant,

[Stoll's Alley or at the State Bank.]

January 16

Truth