

From: Kevin R. Eberle
To: Emmons, Karen
Subject: 299 King
Date: Tuesday, March 19, 2019 4:13:33 PM

Here is a really good shot of 299 King Street. Ray Benton, who has a great collection of old postcards, has this view. The building is technically still standing, but it was radically changed in the mid-20th century.

By the way, I have never gotten a response to my request of the owner of that nice photo of the store at King and Broad Street. I might try again, but it's odd that I wouldn't have gotten any reply at all.

The information transmitted is intended only for the person or entity to which it is addressed and may contain confidential and/or legally privileged material. Any review, retransmission, dissemination or other use of this information, directly or indirectly, by persons or entities other than the intended recipient is prohibited. If you are not the intended recipient please contact the sender and delete the material from all computers in which it resides. Internet communications cannot be guaranteed to be secure or error-free as information could be intercepted, corrupted, lost, destroyed, arrive late, incomplete, or contain viruses. Therefore, we do not accept responsibility for any errors or omissions that are present in this message, or any attachment, that have arisen as a result of e-mail transmission. If verification is required, please request a hard-copy version or contact us by phone. Any views or opinions presented are solely those of the author and do not necessarily represent those of the Charleston School of Law.