

From: Kevin R. Eberle
To: Emmons, Karen
Subject: RE: Atlantic and Church
Date: Monday, January 16, 2017 6:05:07 PM

I heard back from Bill Conley, the guy who owns this photo. He indicated his photos are the originals because some of them had things noted on the backs. He didn't actually reply to my request for a high res scan, but he did say he was going to go through some papers this week and would let me know what he finds. Mixed messages! But, he said sharing the image was fine with him.

From: Kevin R. Eberle
Sent: Friday, January 13, 2017 4:00 PM
To: Emmons Karen <kemmons@historiccharleston.org>
Subject: Atlantic and Church

This is a photo by a guy who is descended from John F. Meyer. I don't know if his copy is an original photo or just a copy of a photo, but I've asked him about getting a high res scan of this image. If this is a reproduction of a published photo, it's one that I've never seen at least.

This is his family's store. It was at the northwest corner of Church Street and Lightwood Alley (now the western half of Atlantic Street). This is a fantastic image of a house that is now longer around.

The information transmitted is intended only for the person or entity to which it is addressed and may contain confidential and/or legally privileged material. Any review, retransmission, dissemination or other use of this information, directly or indirectly, by persons or entities other than the intended recipient is prohibited. If you are not the intended recipient please contact the sender and delete the material from all computers in which it resides. Internet communications cannot be guaranteed to be secure or error-free as information could be intercepted, corrupted, lost, destroyed, arrive late, incomplete, or contain viruses. Therefore, we do not accept responsibility for any errors or omissions that are present in this message, or any attachment, that have arisen as a result of e-mail transmission. If verification is required, please request a hard-copy version or contact us by phone. Any views or opinions presented are solely those of the author and do not necessarily represent those of the Charleston School of Law.