Dear Karen:

I hope this e-mail finds you well. We are hard at work on The Mayor documentary. I am still working on our list for you. As I was researching some images I came across image: KING.313.3 you may want to note that this is the location of the first Philip Simmons gate and that the courtyard ironwork was all done by Philip Simmons.

Mark and I worked with Mr. Simmons in his later years documenting his works around the peninsula. I believe it was based on a documentation that had been funded by Historic Charleston in 1993. We were updating it to see what was missing and what had been added since.

Many thanks,
Steve
