April,

Take a look at these:

<https://spaces.hightail.com/receive/D7HSXhi8aC>

I tend to think more Greek Revival, but that could easily be a redo.

I believe that the footprint on the B&A map is the current footprint, with the addition of porches and an early 20th century stair tower on the north. Actually, hard to say about the porches. Are the proportions of the individual building on that map good?

Thanks,

Craig
