

Staff Photo by Brad Nettles

Choice Real Estate

This house at 41 East Bay St. brought $435,000 when sold about a month ago, according to Charleston County records. Whitaker F. Riggs Jr., the purchaser, has the house up for sale again, according to a downtown real estate salesman.

Overlooking Charleston Harbor, the two-story home contains almost 4,000 square feet of space and includes two fireplaces, a patio and garden and heated swimming pool.

News + Courier

1-21-82