Let me try this again. Even sending these one at a time, I was getting error messages. So, these are compressed, but still very good image quality.

Here are a few new photos that a member of the Schwacke family brought to the sign unveiling in Allan Park a few weeks ago. Their family house was at 369 Ashley Ave. (at the NW corner of Ashley and North Allan Park).

None of these is a blockbuster photo, but well worth a few bytes of memory in the old archives. And, the photo of a group of childhood friends who named themselves the "Allan Park Gang" is superb even though it doesn't show any houses.

(I'll have to send these in a series since they are too large in their current format.)
